SENIORS

Well seniors we finally made it. I know at times during these past years you must have wanted to give up, but now we're grateful we didn't. We're now a step beyond our high school days.

This is the time to take control of our lives. It's time now for us to go to college or enter the world of work. Choose wisely, no longer will there be a teacher hunting us down for that assignment or giving us a second chance even though it's long past deadline. Our high school years are over, and we must get ready to go out in the "real world".

These years have been filled with precious memories. Memories that we will not want to forget. This yearbook has captured some of those memories and, hopefully, will help you remember them as clearly as when they occurred. As we look back on our high school days, each of us will recall something unique, perhaps a special relationship, or that one teacher who took a little extra time for us. We will also remember these times as the most carefree times of our lives.

But now it's time to move on to bigger and better things. There's no limit to what we can achieve with determination and hard work. It's time to stop dreaming and go out and get it. This is our time to take the steps needed to make our lives as successful as we wish them to be.

So to each of you I wish the best of luck. Take your dreams and make sure you strive to be the best you can be. We have come this far and there's no stopping us now. So to the class of '95— you're a step beyond high school and a step toward reaching your goals.

Best wishes, Ca'Sandra

SPORTS

SPORTS

The Charlestown Townies had a very successful year. All of the athletes tried their hardest and played their best. The boys basketball team made it to the state finals for the first time in five years. The girls basketball team as well as the football team were one game shy of making it to the city championships. The track team had an outstanding season, and the volleyball team made it to the city championships. Both the swimming team as well as the hockey team did exceptionally well this season. All in all, it was a great year, and everyone who played and supported the teams helped to make it so.

It was a rebuilding year for the CHS Hockey team with only one senior captain, Greg Staples. The townies gave a great effort all year, showing real CHS pride. The townies will look forward to next year with most of the team players returning, including juniors Jamie Hutchins and Steve Linnane. Also, look for Joe Tallent and Ricky Evers to have a good season next year for the townies.

- Angel—bad, all by my myself!
- Boris—just a little leap will do.
- Juan & Angel—2 good captains with athletic talent and leadership.

This year's track team had a very successful season. With ten members attending meets, and the leadership of Captains Juan and Angel, and Co-Captains Rich and Gabe Charlestown was the highlight of every meet. The veterans on the team were ably assisted by some very promising first year athletes. Under the capable direction of Coach Meagher, the team had a great season.

FACULTY

TEACHERS

When you think of a teacher what do you think of? Do you think of someone who is just there to teach you? Someone who collects homework, writes passes and constantly says no? Well, you're wrong! A teacher is someone who takes time for your problems, a person who supports you. A teacher is dedicated and willing to let us explore new and wonderful experiences. Teachers are people who strive to make their students succeed in the world today. No matter how much trouble students are, teachers are always here to support them. So now, we would like to thank our teachers.

Thank You

SCHOOL LIFE

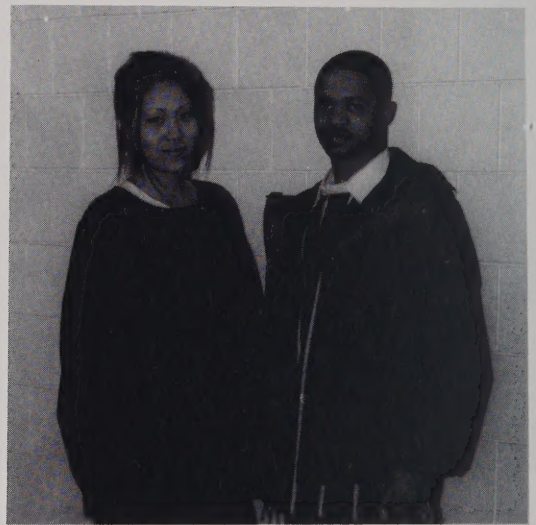

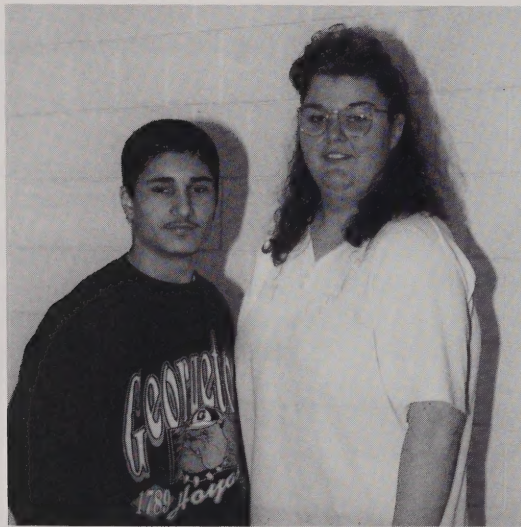

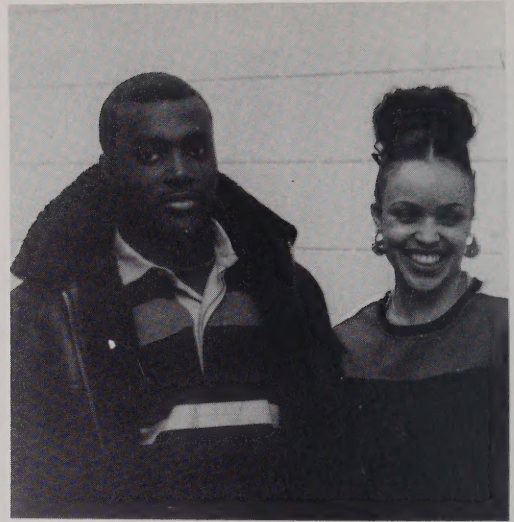

SCHOOL DAYZ

I was given the opportunity to write this part of the yearbook, a few months ago. So I thought, "What better way to write about our school days at Charles-town High School than to highlight some of the events that we have experienced." The following list is representative of those experiences—

- The frustration of having 60 announcements daily.
- The joy of receiving no homework.
- The fun of hanging in the hall with friends between classes.
- The 10 minute wait for a lav.
- The anxiety of seeing your report card.
- The fear of discovering your broken-into locker.
- The happiness of attending a field-trip and legitimately missing class.
- The pain of injuring yourself during a game in gym.
- The annoyance of staying for detention because you were tardy.
- The satisfaction of receiving an award at CHS awards night.
- The anxiety of opening your SAT score report
- The task of writing your college essays and filling out the financial aid applications.

Indeed, these are just some of the things that we will miss about CHS. Each of us also has his/her own special moments that makes their memories of CHS cherishable. The class of '95 will leave CHS with happy thoughts.

THE MOST—

You voted for them and here they are (from top left) the people you chose as the Most Athletic, Tanya Arthur and Shawn Brown; the Best Dressed are Livingston Bien-Aimé and Sandra Barros; the Friendliest two people according to your poll are Audalio Soto and Nicole Nickerson; Chan La and MacGregor Morgan were voted the Most Likely to Succeed; and the Class Clowns are Famaaya Bland and Emmanuel Bellegarde.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The elected officers are:

Sandra Barros—President
Wendy Calderon—Vice President
Rachel Jean-Marie—Secretary
Denina Dunn—Treasurer

THE YEARBOOK STAFF

It was a challenge to have this year's book ready for deadline, be paid for, and be a product that we can be proud of given our limited resources. But, here it is, a modest effort to capture the memories of our senior year. We hope you enjoy your book; and we are confident, that ten years from now, when you look through the pages of Ironsides fond memories of your senior year will come back.

The Staff:

Seated: Chan La, Shamika Woods, Eric Wong, Famaya Bland, Daphneé Marcelin
Standing: Eloy Perez, Denina Dunn, Wei Tang Chen, Derly Acosta, Tanya Arthur, Gladys Gonzalez, Melissa Chambers, Sandy Jean-Michel, Ruben LaRoche
